

GAME DAY MEMORIES

Tailgaters, Touchdowns & Traditions!

Be a part of History!

The editors/authors of the bestsellers "A Street Named O", "Life in Lincoln...As We Remember It", "Lincoln Looks Back" and "When I Was a Kid" are now collecting Nebraska Football Fan's memories of Game Days in Nebraska for the upcoming book "Game Day Memories - Tailgaters, Touchdowns & Traditions!"

"Game Day Memories" will be the latest addition to a series of books that capture history in a way like no others! Within the covers of these books are the compiled memories of people about the places, perspectives and experiences that we love to read and talk about as they help us to remember life as it was in days gone by.

We are looking for memories of the entire GAME day: pre-game to post-game and everything in between.

Remember when women wore red and white carnations with a pipe cleaner N on them? When game time was 1:00 in the afternoon...always. When men wore red sport jackets and white slacks to the games? When Red & White balloons were sold on every street corner? And who can forget listening to the radio and hearing Lyle Bremser shout: "Man, Woman and Child!"

Send us your stories and memories from childhood days in the knothole section to becoming a season ticket holder. Did you play for Nebraska on the football team? Were you a band member? Remember Homecoming bonfires and sorority/fraternity displays? Ever take the train from Omaha to Lincoln for the Game? Do you have a great story of seeing the game from the 50-yard line? What have been your traditions or favorite Tailgate memories? Send vintage recipes used for Tailgates and pre-game parties. Share your favorite game day spots in downtown Lincoln as well as the memories of going to dinner after the game to celebrate. Send stories of trips to Lincoln for the games as well as traveling to Bowl games and Away Games. Remember when televised and night games came into the picture? Remember the Big 8? Share stories about a favorite coach or player. All memories are of value and readers will love reminiscing about game day from every perspective.

Stories will be collected from Nebraska fans all across the state as well as from Alaska to Florida! And if you have a photo to share, please include it with story.

Game Day Memories will be published and ready for sale in bookstores by late October 2010. Published by Game Day Friends Mary Jane Nielsen, Jonathan Roth, and Russ & Beth Vogel.

Deadline for submissions is August 1, 2010. But do not delay sending your stories as this book of memories will fill very quickly.

This publication is sure to be a collector's item, so don't miss out on being a part of Game Day history!
